

HEMPSTEAD SCHOOL DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT SEARCH UPDATE

As promised at the beginning of the search, the community and staff would be kept informed on the status of the process.

What has been done?

- Selection criteria solicited and compiled.
- Position advertised.
- Applications received and screened.
- Search Team conducted initial interviews to determine slate.
- The Board held first interviews on March 6-7, 2009. Of the five interviewed, two candidates were selected for second interviews
- Second interviews were held on March 27, 2009

What will we do next?

At this point, the Board is at a critical stage in the process. They will make site visits of the two candidates being considered for the Superintendency. These interviews will take place during the second week of April. Once the site visits are completed, the Board expects to make a decision on the final candidate.

Below is a summary of candidates that applied for the position.
