

David Paterson School IB PYP Program of Inquiry in Unit Order 2020-2021

Week of	9/1	9/7	9/14	9/21	9/28	10/5	10/12	10/19	10/26	11/2	11/9	11/16	11/23	11/30	12/7	12/14	1/4	1/11	1/18	1/25	2/1	2/8	2/22	3/1	3/8	3/15	3/22	4/5	4/12	4/19	4/26	5/3	5/10	5/17	5/24	5/31	6/7	6/14	6/21
Gr.1	How the world works							Where we are in place and time							How we organize ourselves							Who we are							How we express ourselves							Sharing the Planet
Central Idea	Organisms react to environmental changes.							The past influences the future.							People and their communities depend on their natural resources.							Communities function when its citizens take responsibility.							Creative expression can communicate thoughts, feelings, and ideas.							Living things grow and change.
Gr.2	Who we are							How the world works							How we express ourselves							How we organize ourselves							Where we are in place and time							Sharing the planet
Central Idea	Responsible individuals make choices that affect their lives.							Earth changes in natural and unnatural ways.							People around the world celebrate traditions and events to express their beliefs.							Where you live affects how you live.							Changes from the past and discoveries of the present revitalize humankind.							Living things are affected by and adapt to the natural world.
Gr.3	How we organize ourselves							Where we are in place and time							Who we are							How we express ourselves							How the world works							Sharing the planet
Central Idea	Citizens contribute to maintain a society.							Cultural awareness develops by analyzing other civilizations.							Communities or cultures have unique histories.							Creativity leads to innovations.							Geography creates challenges for living things.							People, plants and animals depend on each other for survival.
Gr.4	Who we are							Where we are in place and time							How we organize ourselves							How the world works							Sharing the planet							How we express ourselves
Central Idea	Beliefs, values and location determine our overall well-being.							Revolution leads to opportunities and new understandings.							People influence decision making to generate change.							Energy can be transformed, conserved and sustained to meet societal needs.							Environmental features shape the world of its inhabitants.							People communicate in different ways to express ideas and share information.
Gr.5	How the world works							How we express ourselves							How we organize ourselves							Who we are							Sharing the planet							Where we are in place and time
Central Idea	Distribution of finite resources vary around the world.							Cultures influence how we view the world.							Systems and structures impact humankind.							Geography influences relationships amongst communities.							The migration of living things may lead to change.							Past civilizations contribute to present day society.
Gr.6	Sharing the planet							How we organize ourselves							How we express ourselves							Who we are							Where we are in place and time							How the world works
Central Idea	Geography determines and influences history.							Beliefs and values play a significant role in the world today.							Classical civilizations share many characteristics and continue to influence modern life.							Traits shape behavior and interactions of others.							Society changes as consequences of human development and or environmental change.							Energy sources impact productivity and everyday activities.
Key	Who we are							Where we are in place and time							How we express ourselves							How the world works							How we organize ourselves							Sharing the planet						