COMMUNICATION

PYP Learner Profile Attribute:

Communicator

1st
GRADE

Olivia S.

Mr. M's 1st
Grade
Student

Olivia, is an excellent communicator. She had great ideas while talking about what it means to be a good citizen. She also listened to her peers' ideas and gave them great feedback. I am amazed at her participation in class. Great job!

Brian O.

Mrs. A's
1st Grade Student

Brian is a great communicator. He is always one of the first ones to say good morning to his classmates and is always ready to give a compliment when others do great work. He loves to participate in class discussions and always tries his best. When he is unsure of something, he is not afraid to ask questions. Brian is truly a great listener and speaker and has all of the great qualities of a communicator.

Emely and Melany G.

Mrs. T's 1st Grade Students

Emely and Melany are excellent communicators! This is their first year joining the same class and they have adapted beautifully working together and respecting each other. They always express themselves confidently and creatively in English and Spanish in a beautiful way. They collaborate effectively, listen carefully and respect the perspectives of their teachers and peers.

Maynor F.

Ms. J's
2nd Grade Student

Maynor is a deep thinker and an excellent communicator. He expresses himself well in class discussions and always listens to his classmate's thoughts and ideas. He also encourages his classmates to be quiet and listen to others during zoom class. Maynor will also contact me if has any questions about the work. He is well deserving of being December's Student of the Month.

Luis M.

Ms. P's 2nd Grade
Student

Luis is a very good communicator. Luis is a smart boy who is full of great ideas. Whether in person or online he is attentive ready to interact, share his ideas, listen to others and even build upon the ideas of others.

Student*

Alessandra is a great communicator. She is always willing to start a conversation. When in class she constantly participates and expresses herself with ease.

Emmanuel P.

Ms. B's
4th Grade Student

Emmanuel is an excellent communicator. He always wants to express his opinions during class discussions and is opened to discussing his reasons behind every opinion he has in a respectful manner. He actively participates and is always filled with wonderings about the topics of our daily lessons. He is also comfortable asking questions to clarify any misunderstandings in a lesson so he can be successful. I am very proud of your progress in 4th grade!!

Angel P.

Ms. B's
4th Grade Student

Angel is an excellent communicator. He is very kind and is very inquisitive, especially when he wants to learn about something new or when he needs work to be explained. Although English is not his first language, he is not afraid to communicate his thoughts during each lesson and will be the first to explain math to his classmates. He is also an excellent listener when directions are explained, which is communicated in his great quality of work. Keep up the great effort Angel!

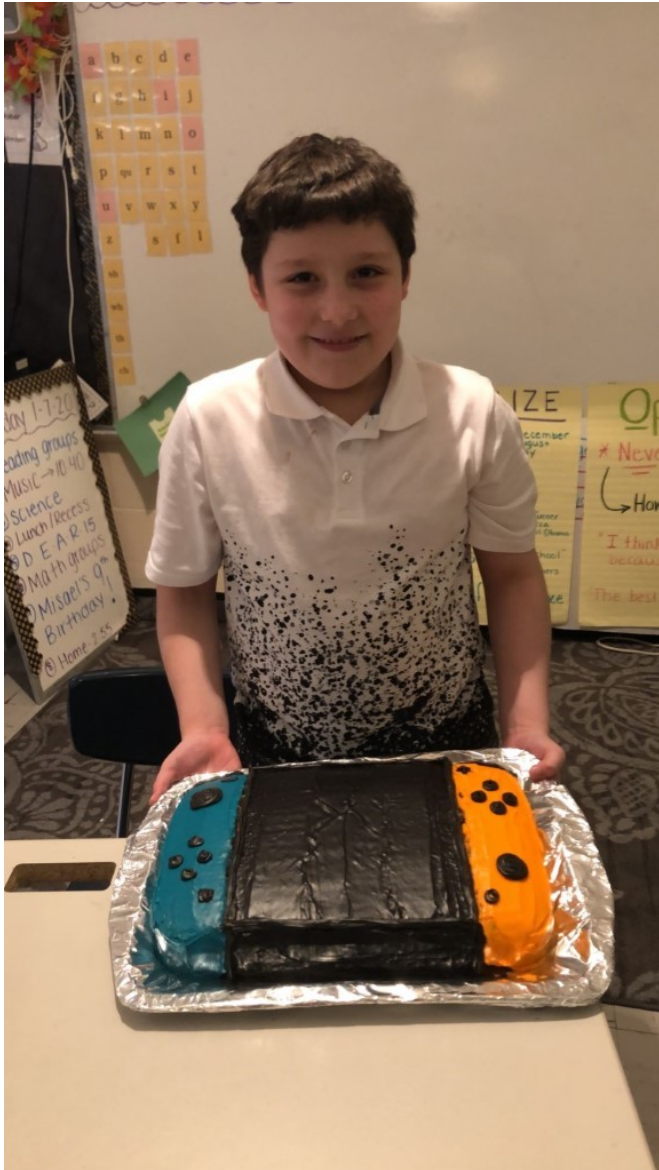

Jeremiah V.

Ms. G's
4th Grade Student

Jeremiah is a fantastic communicator. He is a sweet, kind soul who always has such amazing things to say to his classmates and teacher. Jeremiah is also able to communicate when he needs help or is unsure of the task, which is just as important as communicating kind thoughts. I am so very proud of you, Jeremiah! Go Jeremiah! Go Jeremiah!

Misael G.

Ms. G's
4th Grade Student

Misael has shown such amazing improvement in his communication skills. He is more comfortable sharing his thoughts even if it may be off topic. Misael listens to his classmates and always has a kind word for them when they've done a good job. I am very proud of you Misael, keep it up!

Ana C.

Mrs. G's
4th Grade Student

Ana is a wonderful example of a communicator. Ana is very expressive when she communicates verbally, through writing and facial expressions. Ana has an extensive vocabulary and is quick to help others communicate their thoughts as well. I am proud of Ana and I look forward to seeing her reach her full potential in fourth grade!

Alison P.

Mrs. G's
4th Grade Student

Alison is an amazing communicator. Alison thoughtfully chooses her words when conveying her opinions, ideas and feelings. Alison is eager to share her knowledge verbally as well as through her writing. I am proud of Alison and the amazing work that she is doing in fourth grade!

Valentina L.

Ms. P's
4th Grade Student

Valentina is an excellent communicator. She can convey her ideas clearly in both spoken and written language. She can revoice her classmate's ideas and add-on her ideas to further clarify her thinking. Also, when in class Valentina isn't afraid to refer to the teacher when she doesn't understand something. In addition, she loves to help her classmates if they are experiencing technical difficulties, explaining what to do to fix the problem. Congratulations Valentina for being a great communicator!

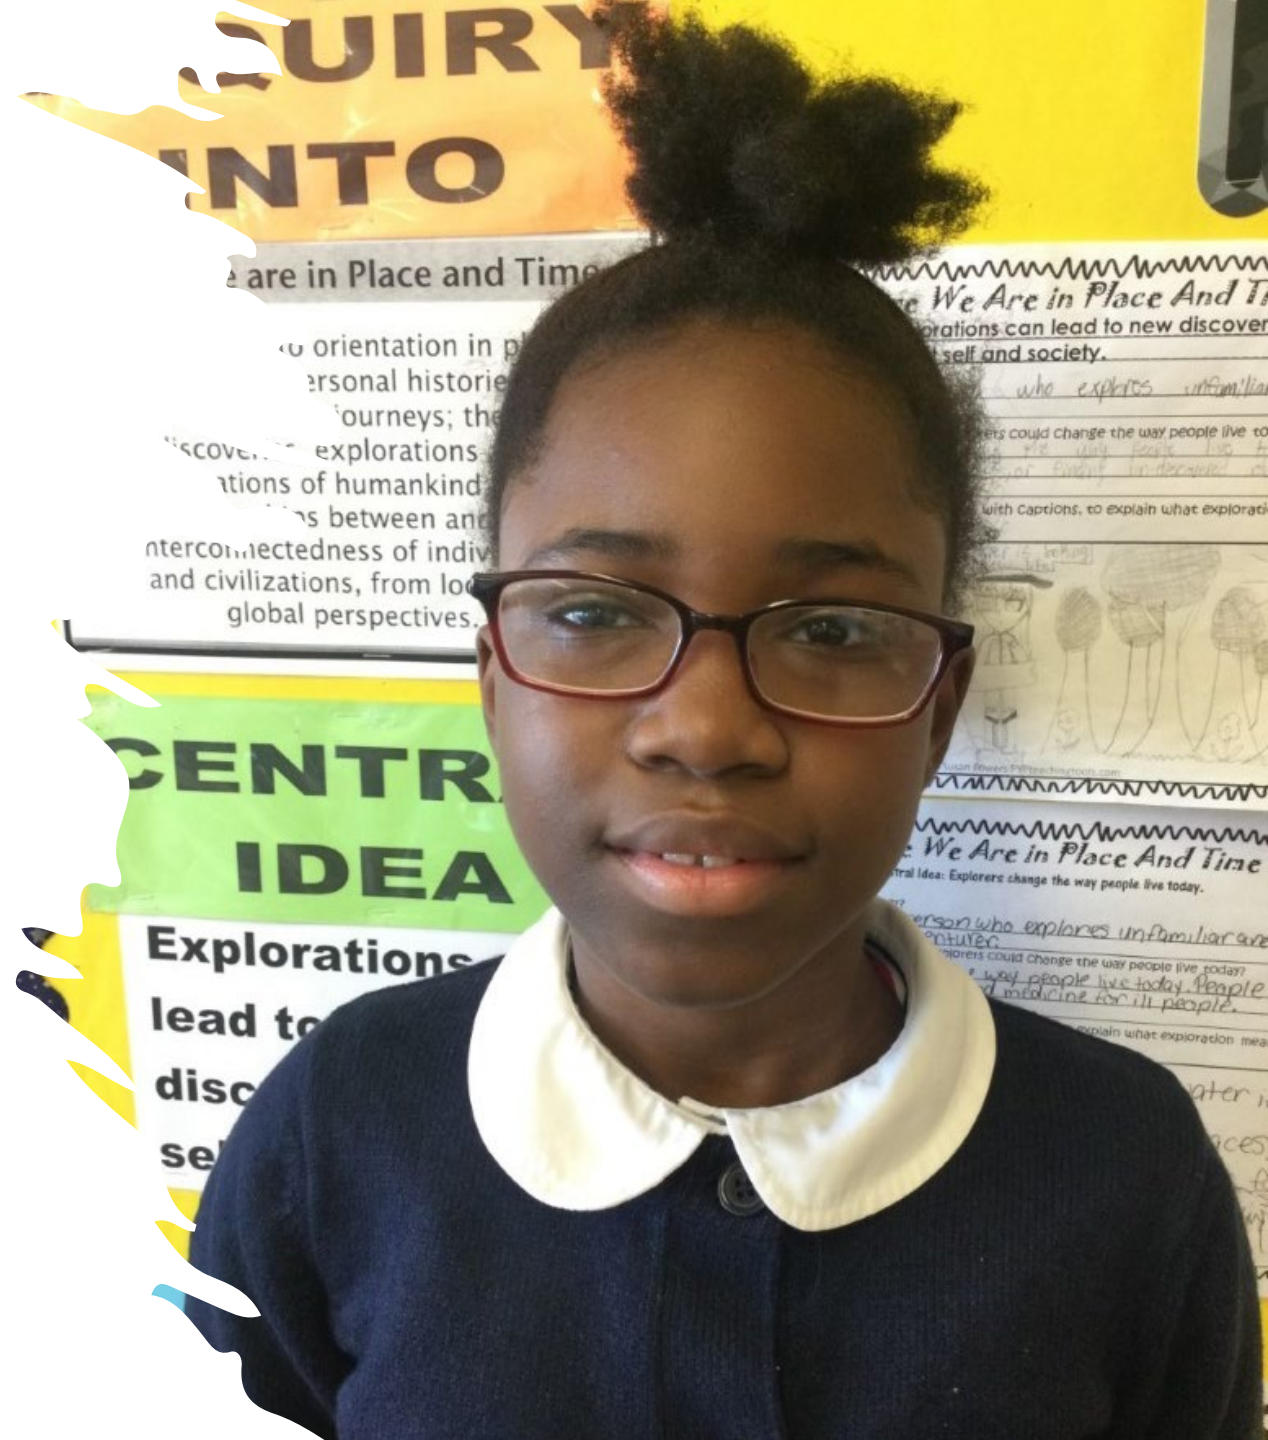

FIFTH
Grade

Medjina R.

Ms. A's
5th Grade Student

Medjina is an excellent communicator. She talks about her learning in ways that others understand. She conveys information and exchanges ideas with her classmates, teachers and family in multiple ways. When she understands a process and has captured a learning, she shares her knowledge of the skill step-by-step with her classmates. Medjina is a great communicator! "Keep up great work Medjina!" I'm so proud of you.

Andrea R.

Mrs. B's
5th Grade Student

Andrea is an amazing communicator. She shares her ideas in both English and Spanish. Andrea shares her ideas during guided discussions. She is working hard during the remote learning process. Great job Andrea!

Lily V.

*Mrs. B's
5th Grade
Student*

Lily is an exceptional communicator! She shares her ideas every day during our online sessions. Lily is always ready and willing to listen to the ideas of others as well. Lily is doing a great job this school year. Keep it up Lily!

Evolet B.

Mrs. M's
4th Grade Student

Evolet is an excellent example of a communicator. She shares her ideas with other students and openly listens to theirs. She is always a wonderful part of our academic discourse, supporting others that are shy to share their opinions.

David V.

Mrs. M's
4th Grade Student

David is a fantastic communicator. He asks many clarifying questions to both his classmates and educators during our academic conversations that deepen our collective understanding. He is quick to add facts he has researched to deepen our knowledge.

PYP TEACHER OF THE MONTH

Mrs. Minneci

Grade 5

Teacher

Mrs. Minneci is an amazing communicator! She's super tech-saavy and is always willing to share her knowledge with students and even with other teachers. This month, she helped show the teachers cool and creative ways to use Schoology to plan assignments. As our union representative, she listens carefully to the teachers' concerns and communicates them in a professional manner. Thanks for all that you do Mrs. Minneci!
