Christopher V.

Mr. Myles
and Ms.
Gibson's 1st
Grade
Student

The student of the month for the knowledgeable trait in Mr. Myles' class is Christopher. He is knowledgeable because he answers questions and explains why

Eliseo L.

Mrs. Torres-Gearity's
1st Grade Students

Eliseo is a perfect example of a knowledgeable Student!

He loves to read and share fun facts about different science topics with his peers and teachers. Eliseo is now fascinated with the phases of the moon. He is keeping a moon journal to collect data and discuss the changes he sees each day!

Maximiliano G.

Mrs. Torres-Gearity's 1st
Grade Student

Maximiliano is a perfect example of a knowledgeable student! He loves to explore and solve new math problems. Maximiliano figures out ways to find more than one strategy to solve problems and makes sure to share his strategies with peers and teachers.

Alexa M.

Ms. Johnson's
2nd Grade Student

Dr. Alexa has shown academic growth from first grade to second grade and is a fine example of being a knowledgeable student. She may appear quiet and shy but her knowledge of concepts about local and global events comes through in her writing. When you give Alexa a topic to write about her knowledge flows from her mind to the paper. Congratulations Alexa!

Aiden D.

Ms. Johnson's
2nd Grade Student

Dr. Aiden entered Front Street School this year. He is a quiet and mannerly student with a great deal of knowledge about many things in the world. In discussions Aiden's responses will go beyond what is being asked of him. Aiden is from Grenada and while he was a student there he also received an award from the government for being a critical thinker. Now you are receiving an award in the United States. Congratulations Aiden!

Martha C.

Ms. Perez's 2nd Grade Student

Martha wears being knowledgeable well! During this unit, we have been learning how being knowledgeable is not only knowing many different things but also making connections between what we learn and the world around us. Martha demonstrated all the things she has learned through thoughtful discussions in class, through her assignments and work and even through her inquiry and asking questions to develop a deep understanding. She has made strides not only through this unit, but throughout the year applying skills and strategies to improve her reading writing and mathematical skills. We are proud you! Remember knowledge is power!

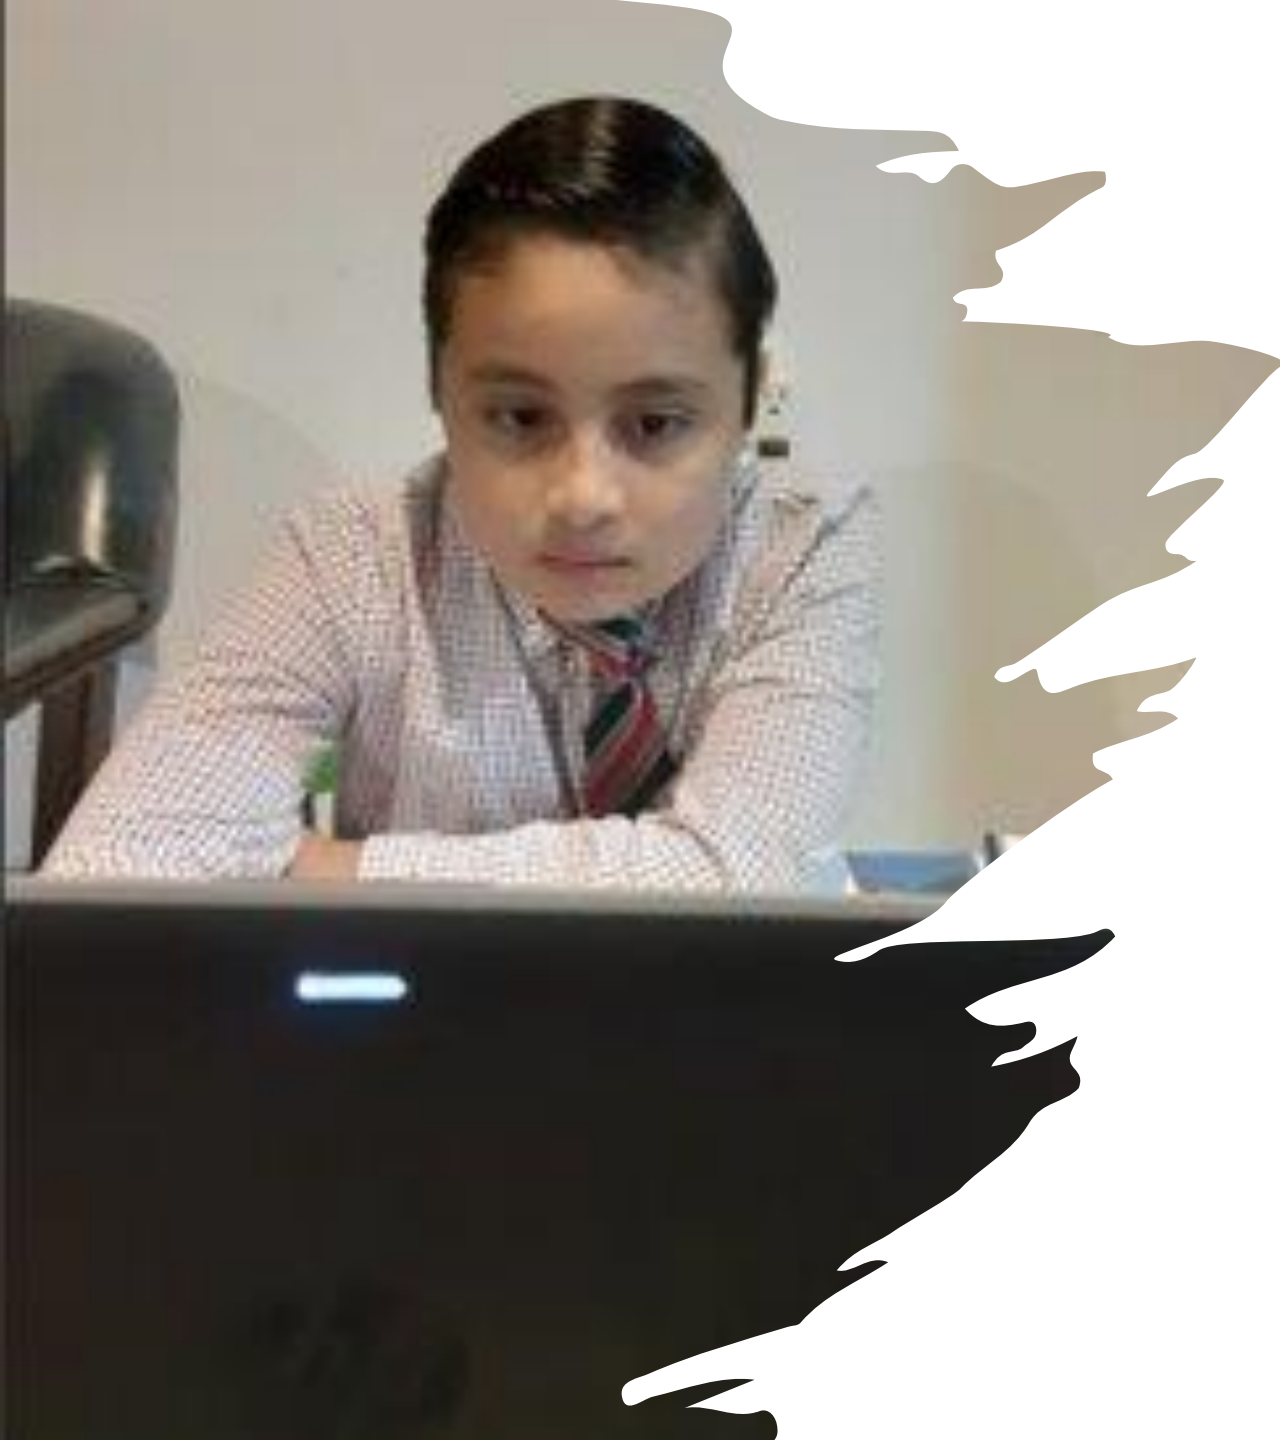

3 Rådige Råde

Rosmeilin
G.

Ms. Burton's
3rd Grade
Student

Rosmeilin is a Knowledgeable learner who explores concepts, ideas, and issues that have local and global significance. In so doing, she acquires in-depth knowledge and develops understanding across a broad range of disciplines. Rosmeilin is currently learning to say hello in many different languages. Congratulations Rosmeilin.

Carlos O.

Mrs. Urena's 3rd
Grade Student

Carlos is a very bright student! When it comes to various subjects, he is knowledgeable in many. He enjoys sharing what he knows with his classmates and enjoys learning new things. You go Carlos!

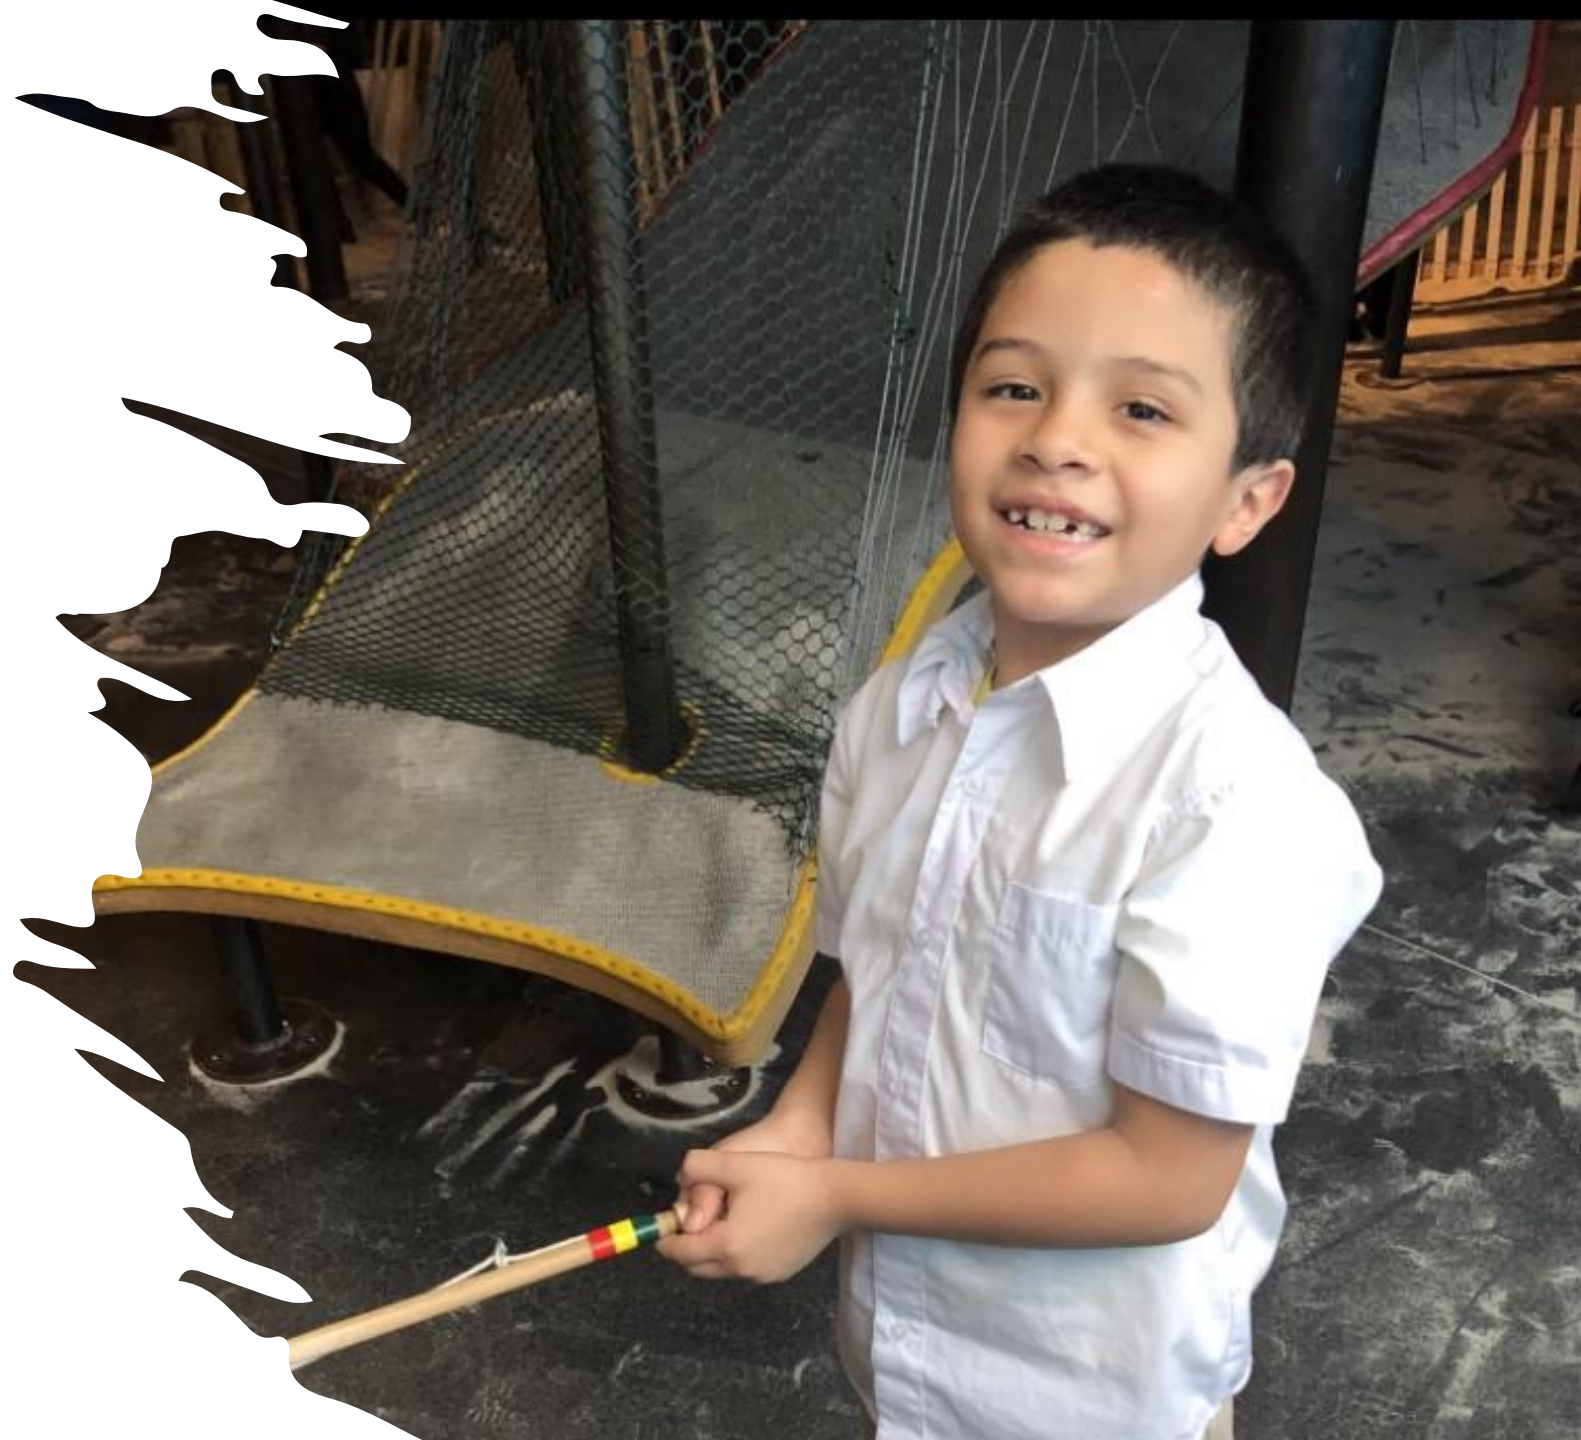

Yeferson B.

Mrs. Urena's 3rd
Grade Student

Yeferson is a very knowledgeable student he shares science facts all the time. He also makes great connections to the topics discussed in class. Keep it up!

Daniel M.
Ms. Gilbert's
3rd Grade
Student

Daniel is an extremely knowledgeable student! He is able to remember things we have learned almost two or three years ago and applies the knowledge to current lessons. Daniel always impresses me with his ability to remember and make connections to previous lessons. Way to go, Daniel! I am so proud of you and your boundless knowledge!

1st GRADE

Oscar C.

Ms. Bois'
4th Grade Student

Oscar is a perfect example of a Knowledgeable student. Although he is very quiet by nature, he is very quick to share his expertise and creativity in all subject areas. He will make connections to what he learns in class to the world around him. Congratulations to a job well done, Oscar!

Bryan C. Ms. Gilbert's 4th Grade Student

Bryan has a brilliant way of integrating past lessons into current ones.

Bryan is extremely knowledgeable and showed this during our unit on resources and hazards. Bryan was able to recall information he learned last year and the year before and applied it to our current unit of inquiry! Amazing job, Bryan! I can always count on you!

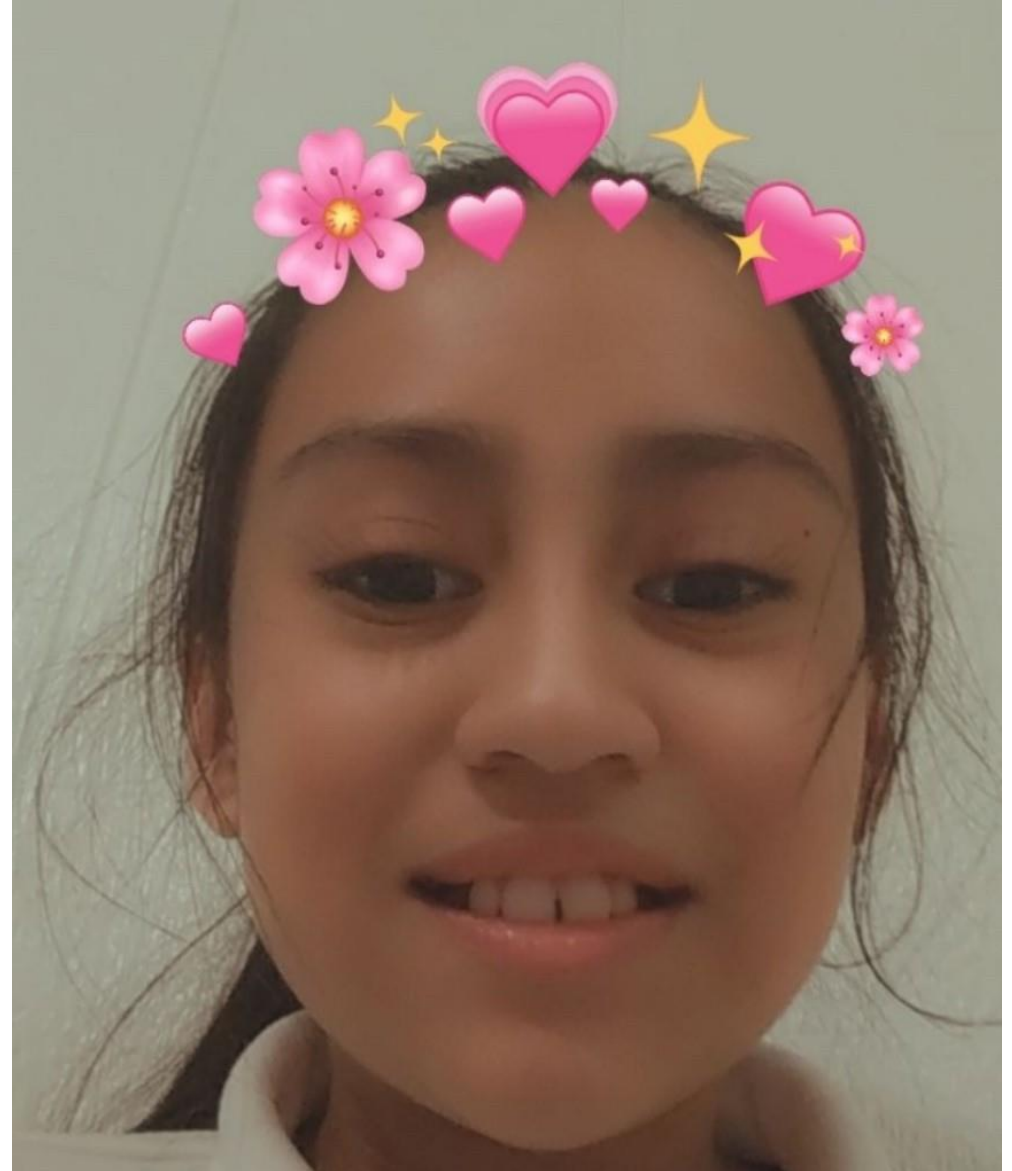

Kaylee C.

Mrs. Gaspari's
4th Grade Student

Kaylee is a wonderful student who exemplifies the PYP learner profile trait Knowledgeable. Kaylee always asks amazing questions and searches for answers.

During lessons, Kaylee often takes ownership of her learning and will research unfamiliar words, topics and questions that her classmates have and post links in the Zoom. Moreover, Kaylee will share her screen with the class and encourage others to be knowledgeable. Congratulations Kaylee!

Leo A.

Ms. Pierre's
4th Grade Student

Leo is a very knowledgeable student in so many academic areas. He is especially knowledgeable in solving mathematical word problems. When presented with a word problem, he knows to first examine the problem before solving it. In addition, Leo remembers how to solve problems using multiple strategies. In class when participating, he remembers very clearly information that was discussed weeks prior in class.

Elijah G.

Ms. Pierre's
4th Grade Student

Elijah is a very knowledgeable student in expressing his thoughts when speaking. When explaining about a topic, he is able to articulate it so well where everyone in the classroom will understand. He is especially knowledgeable in the content of social studies. When we discussed about the Bill of Rights, Elijah was able to provide real life examples about why the Bill of Rights were necessary for everyone to live by.

Valentina L.

Ms. Pierre's
4th Grade Student

Valentina is extremely knowledgeable in writing about different topics. Her written expressions are intriguing and keeps the reader reading. In addition in her written work, Valentina is able to provide her readers a visual about exactly what's happening in the writing. She is also knowledgeable in doing an effective job translating from English to Spanish for one of her classmates at times.

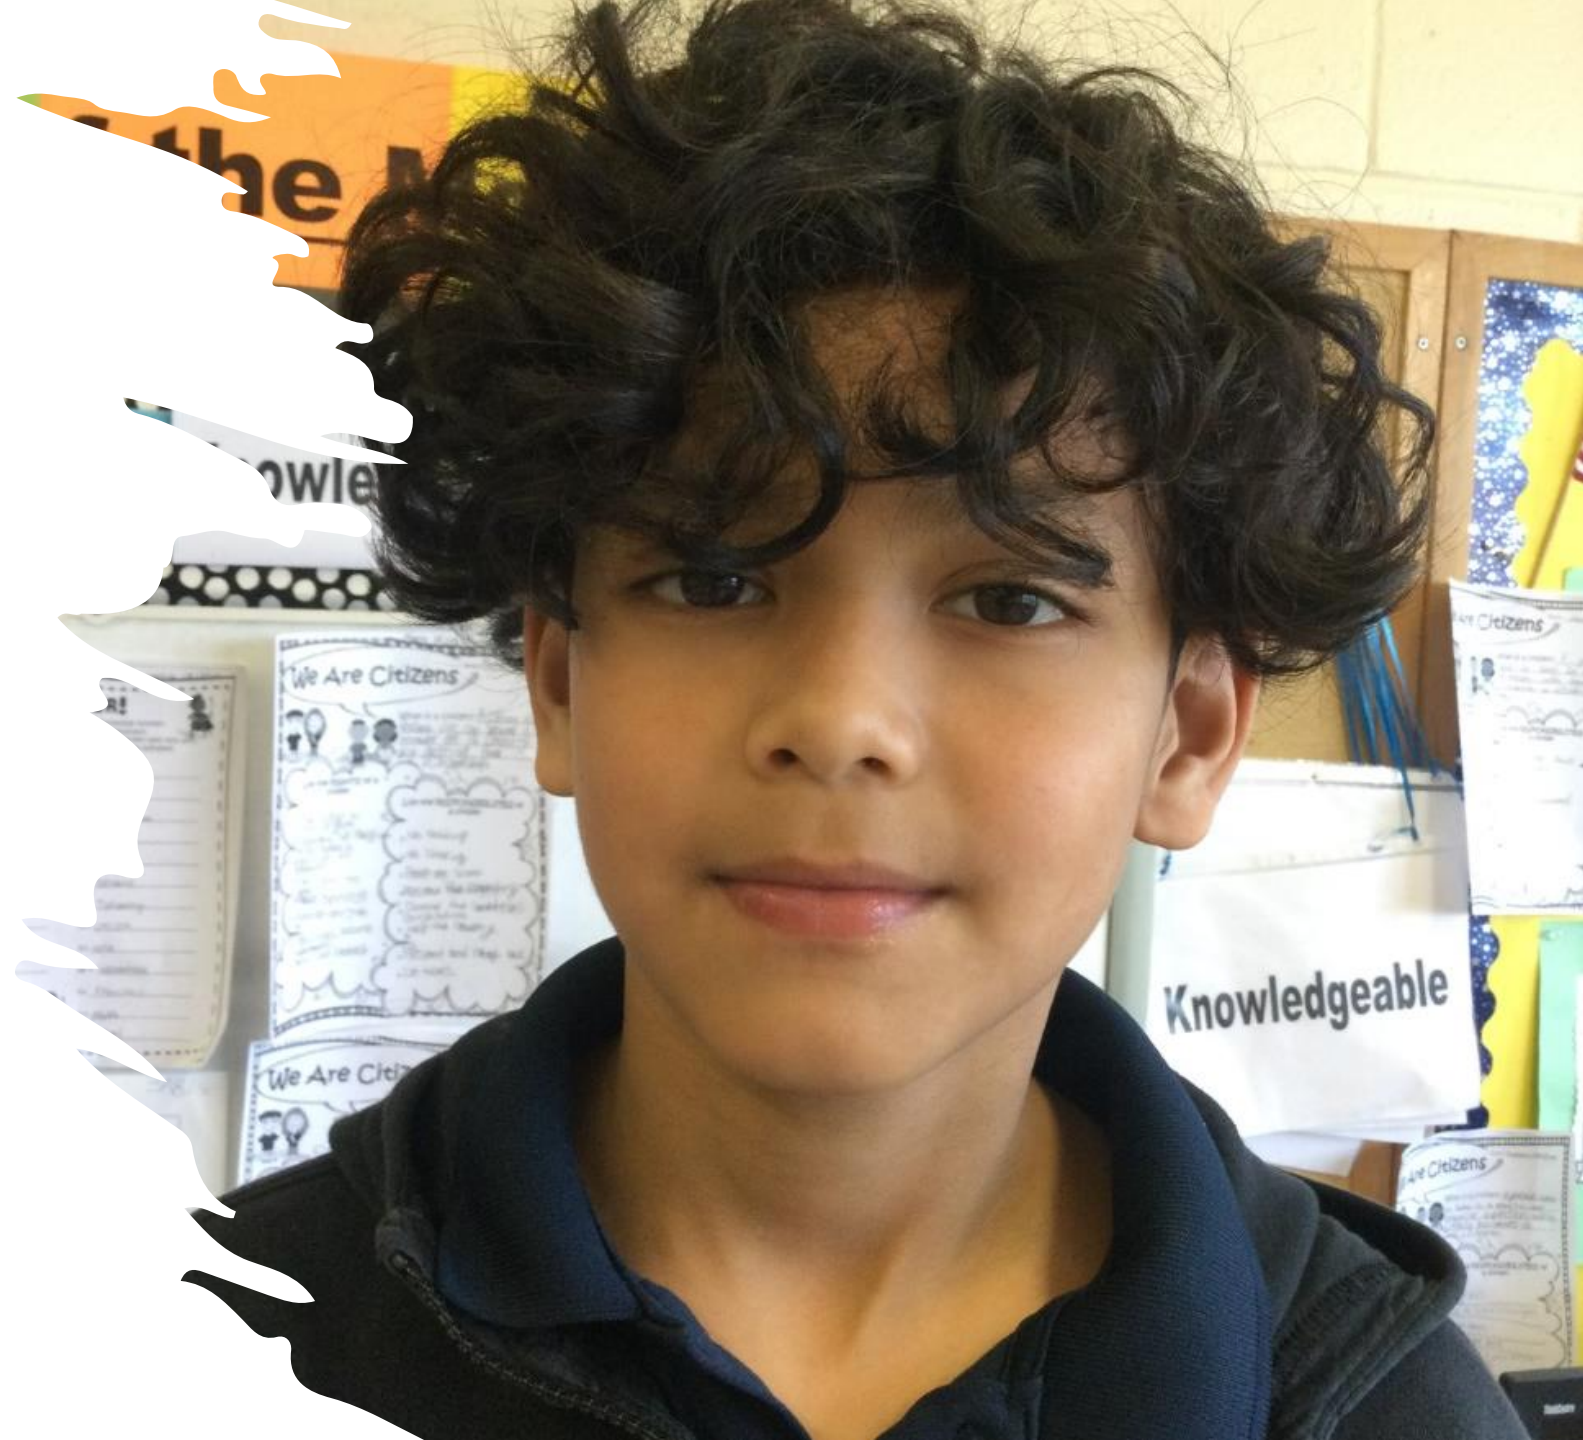

FIFTH
Grade

Lennix B.

Ms. Allen's
5th Grade Student

Lennix is a knowledgeable student. He is constantly seeking to acquire current information about a topic or a skill he has learned. His understanding and awareness of operations in mathematics and making connections is demonstrated in the strategies he targets in his work. He acquires new knowledge by referring to facts and can demonstrate skills in multiple ways. He exhibits knowledge through reflection of his learning, explanations as well as sharing new insights for future investigations. When he understands a skill, he has learned he exhibits a deeper understanding and is able to apply it to real-life situations. "Keep up the Excellent work Lennix!" You are a WONDER to us and help us to keep exploring new knowledge.

John Carlos F.

Mrs. Blanco's
5th Grade Student

John Carlo is our March student of the month. He demonstrates the knowledgeable attribute every day. John loves to expand his knowledge during each IB unit. John has become an expert on democracies, monarchies, and dictatorships. I am proud of his hard work and dedication during virtual learning platform.

Ashley M.

Mrs. Minneci's
4th Grade Student

Ashley is March's Student of the Month for being knowledgeable. She routinely adds factual tidbits to our educational conversations. She also researches not only her own inquiries, but also the inquiries of her classmates.
