

Barack Obama Elementary School

10-Day Emergency ELA Instructional Plan – Grade 5 (Days 31-40)

Teachers: Ms. Acosta, Ms. Lopez, Ms. Vazquez, Ms. Vogelfang

Contact Info: Email- Lacosta@hempsteadschools.org, dlopez@hempsteadschools.org, kvazquez@hempsteadschools.org, dvogelfang@hempsteadschools.org or ClassDojo

Subject	April 27	April 28	April 29	April 30	May 1
ELA	ELA Reading/Writing Day 31- Log into your "Readworks.org" account. Reading: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "The Ivory Billed Woodpecker" 2. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer. 3. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph. 4. Answer the Author's Purpose questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question. 5. Answer the multiple choice questions. Writing:	ELA Reading/Writing Day 32- Log into your "Readworks.org" account. Reading: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "Nothing Left to Lose" 2. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer. 3. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph. 4. Answer the Compare and Contrast questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question. 5. Answer the multiple choice questions. Writing: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Answer the short response questions related to the text above. 	ELA Reading/Writing Day 33- Log into your "Readworks.org" account. Reading: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "A Juicy Problem" 2. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer. 3. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph. 4. Answer the Figurative Language questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question. 5. Answer the multiple choice questions. Writing:	ELA Reading/Writing Day 34- Log into your "Readworks.org" account. Reading: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "Accident Prone" 7. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer. 8. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph. 9. Answer the plot questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question. 10. Answer the multiple choice questions. Writing: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. Answer the short response questions related to the text above. 	ELA Reading/Writing Day 35- Log into your "Readworks.org" account. Reading: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 11. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "Hard Times For Honeybees" 12. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer. 13. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph. 14. Answer the Predicting questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question. 15. Answer the multiple choice questions. Writing: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 3. Answer the short response questions related to the text above.

	1. Answer the short response questions related to the text above.  All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short response questions to be checked. Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.	 All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short response questions to be checked. Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.	1. Answer the short response questions related to the text above.  All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short response questions to be checked. Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.	 All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short response questions to be checked. Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.	 All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short response questions to be checked. Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.
--	---	--	---	--	--

Barack Obama Elementary School
10-Day Emergency ELA Instructional Plan – Grade 5 (Days 31-40)

Subject	May 4	May 5	May 6	May 7	May 8
---------	-------	-------	-------	-------	-------

ELA Reading/Writing Day 36-

Log into your "Readworks.org" account.

Reading:

1. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "Once Upon A Time..."
2. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer.
3. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph.
4. Answer the Author's Purpose questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question.
5. Answer the multiple choice questions.

Writing:

1. Answer the short response questions related to the text above.
-  All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short

ELA Reading/Writing Day 37-

Log into your "Readworks.org" account.

Reading:

6. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "Ryan's Well"
7. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer.
8. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph.
9. Answer the compare and contrast questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question.
10. Answer the multiple choice questions.

Writing:

2. Answer the short response questions related to the text above.
-  All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short

ELA Reading/Writing Day 38-

Log into your "Readworks.org" account.

Reading:

16. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "Bones On The Go!"
17. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer.
18. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph.
19. Answer the figurative language questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question.
20. Answer the multiple choice questions.

Writing:

4. Answer the short response questions related to the text above.
-  All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short

ELA Reading/Writing Day 39-

Log into your "Readworks.org" account.

Reading:

21. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "The Scavenger Hunt"
22. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer.
23. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph.
24. Answer the plot questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question.
25. Answer the multiple choice questions.

Writing:

5. Answer the short response questions related to the text above.

 All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short response questions to be checked.

ELA Reading/Writing Day 40-

Log into your "Readworks.org" account.

Reading:

26. Work backwards and look at the questions prior to reading the text "Place In Space"
27. Jot in your notebook what each question is asking you to answer.
28. Read the text and annotate notes in your notebook for each paragraph.
29. Answer the predicting questions related to the text. *Be sure to jot your text evidence for each question.
30. Answer the multiple choice questions.

Writing:

6. Answer the short response questions related to the text above.

 All work must be submitted directly on Readworks for ELA with all multiple choice and short response questions to be checked.

	response questions to be checked. Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.	response questions to be checked. Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.	response questions to be checked. Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.	Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.	Students without technology work: Complete one reading and the questions from your Rally book or your green Ready book (skinny book) using all close reading strategies.
--	--	--	--	---	---