QUALIFICATIONS:

- Valid New York State Teacher certification
- Passion for teaching and mentoring
- Strong leadership and organizational skills

LOCATION: Elementary/Secondary Schools

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Mentorship & Guidance: Mentor students who are interested in becoming educators, providing insight and advice about career paths within education.
- Club Meetings: Organize and lead weekly club meetings, encouraging students to explore the field of education and inspiring them to pursue careers in the education profession.
- Hands-on Teaching Experiences: Plan and facilitate grade-appropriate hands-on teaching activities and experiences that give students a sense of what being an educator entail).
- Guest Speakers: Coordinate and invite guest speakers from various areas of education to speak with club members and provide diverse perspectives on the teaching profession.
- College Visit Coordination: Prepare students for and participate in a visit to Suny Old Westbury College School of Education, allowing students to explore higher education opportunities in the field.
- Teacher Unions Education: Educate students about the history, roles, and importance of teacher unions in shaping the profession.
- Compliance: Adhere to all district policies and guidelines for student club advisors to ensure a safe and supportive environment.
- Conference Participation: Help prepare students for and facilitate their participation in regional and state Future Educator conferences and events.

COMPENSATION: Contractual

- Weekly Meetings: After-school meetings (minimum of 1 hour) will be compensated at an hourly rate.
- Additional Time: Additional time spent planning college visits, organizing activities, and attending these events will also be compensated at the hourly rate.
